From our family to you...

Welcome to The Crooked Cue!

The Crooked Cue offers a relaxed, fun, and upscale environment, with over 12,000 square feet of restaurant, billiards, and special event venue. This is not your average pool hall – an award winning design that has been featured on “Canada’s Top Pool Halls” on the “CBC” and “TSN”. Revealing a recently renovated interior, The Crooked Cue offers modern, industrial loft space with a cozy, rustic atmosphere. Now you can party under the stars 12 months a year courtesy of our two retractable glass rooftops. The Crooked Cue is a “pocket” for small and large groups of corporate “break”-seeking crowds looking for great food, entertaining billiards, perfectly poured international beers and award-winning wines.

THE CROOKED CUE STORY CHRONO 1920

In 1920, a gentleman by the name of Sam Pappas arrived in Belleville, Ontario from his homeland in Tripoli, Greece. His first business was a restaurant in Belleville called the Belmont which became a popular landmark and a foreshadowing of the career path his family would come to follow. In 1954, Sam Pappas moved to Toronto and purchased this very building where his son, William Pappas owned and operated “Kingsway Billiards” with great success for over 40 years. Around 1990, the billiards business was undergoing a major transition. An up-scale image mixing billiards with great food and atmosphere became the norm. The Crooked Cue set the benchmark for this concept and was the first poolroom in the City of Toronto to be completely licensed throughout its premises. The Crooked Cue has earned its reputation based on quality pool tables, great food and exceptional service. The Crooked Cue has been a “Reader’s Choice” among Toronto Sun and Etobicoke Guardian Readers for years. Most importantly, The Crooked Cue has become a tradition in the Kingsway and much of Etobicoke. We pride ourselves in providing our customers with exceptional hospitality whether it’s a gathering place for old friends, an intimate dinner for two or a corporate function on a grand scale. For over 50 years we have been providing the complete entertainment experience to our discerning customers time and again.
